1975 is...

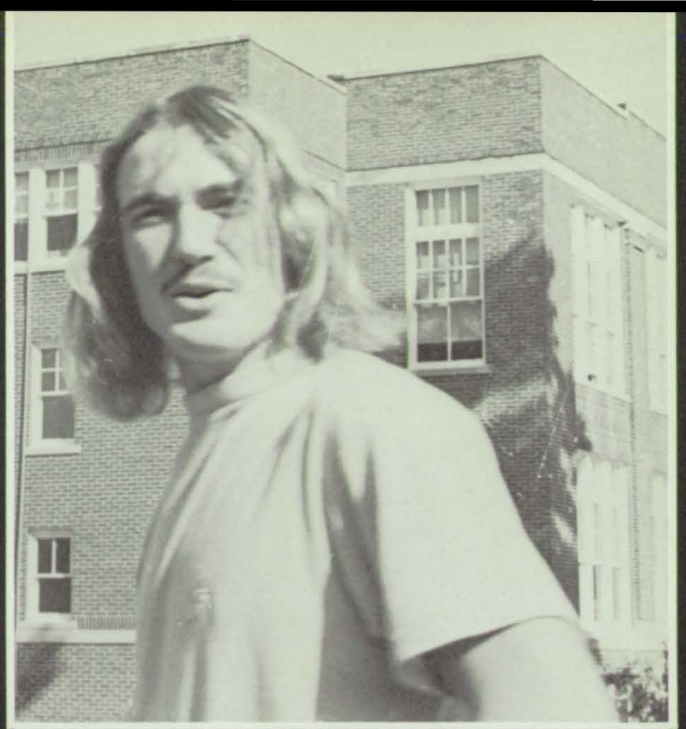

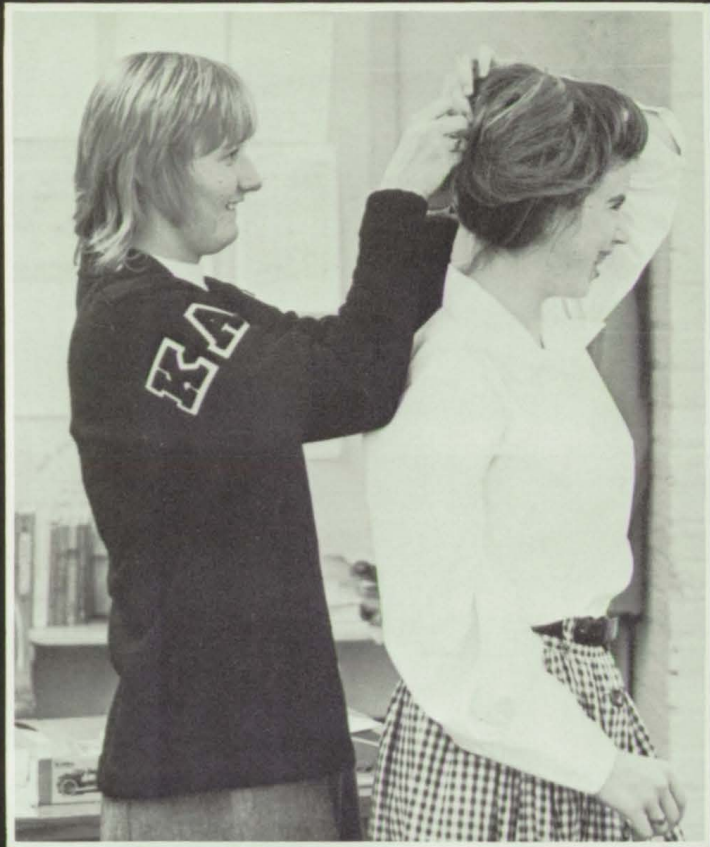

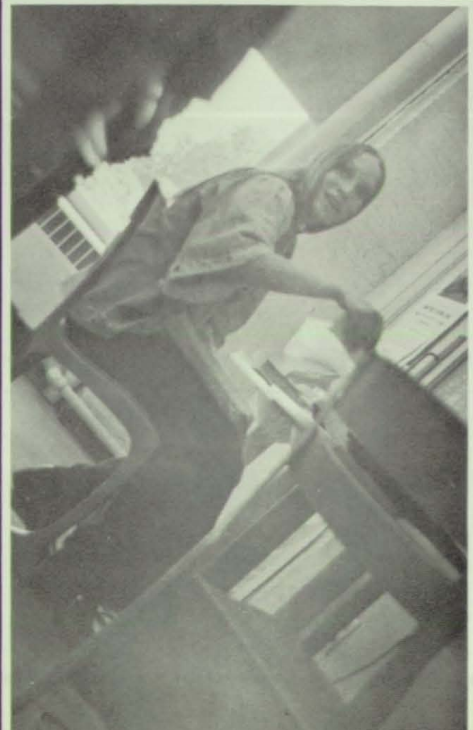

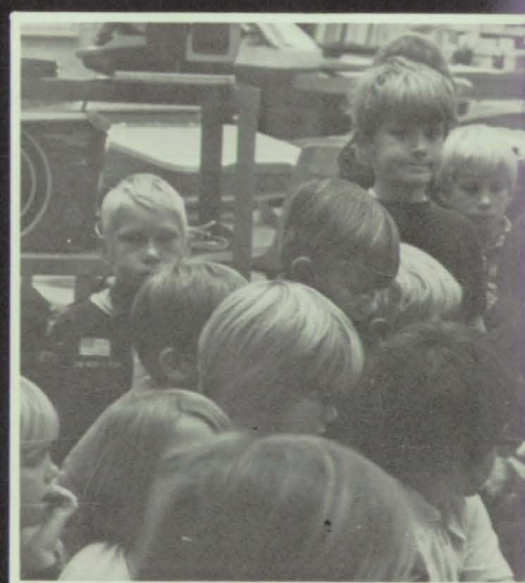

"Footprints at Lincoln"

An entire year of your life.
Gone.
Never to be lived again.
What remains of it?

Look through these pages.
Relive the events; the moods.
Remember the people.
They make your life what it is.

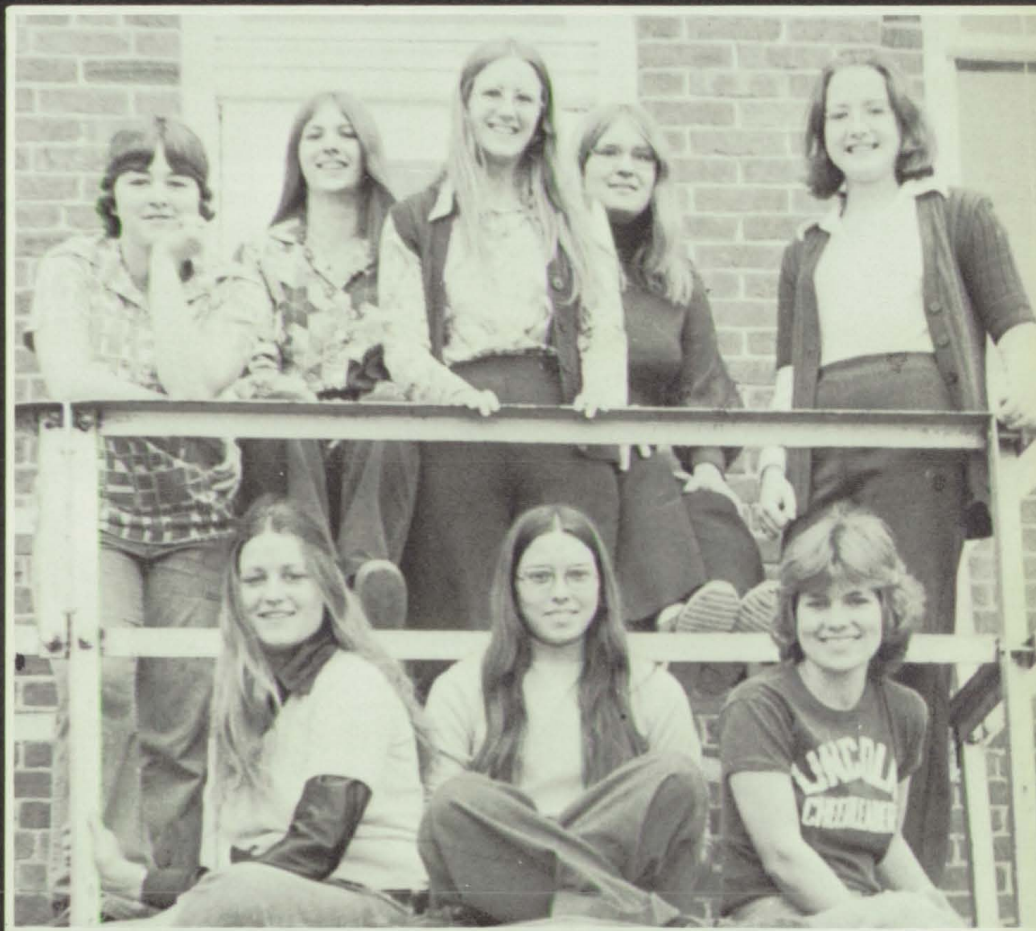

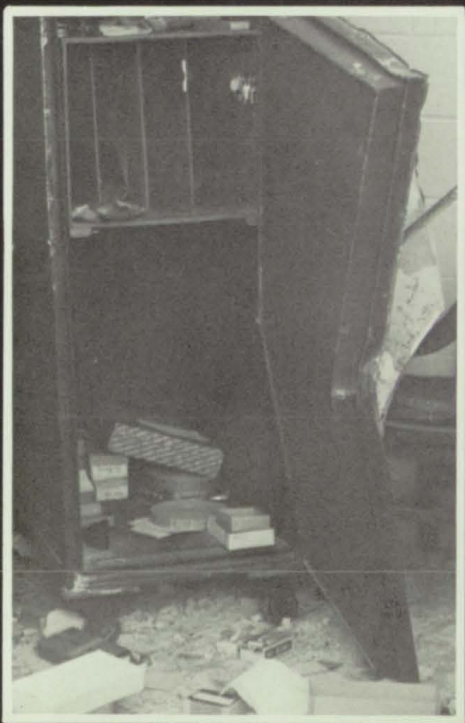

Footprints

Oh, how lovely it would be,
 If I could just see you and me,
 Just together all alone,
 On a soft summer night
 Holding hands oh so tight,
 With the wind way down low
 With the stars above us aglow,
 With the waves at our feet,
 Rushing back for more to meet,
 Leaving footprints as we walk,
 And remember how we talked
 About our lives oh so sweet.

From Across The Atlantic . . .

Staying with us from two European countries this past year were Anne Seebach and Bart Decaluwé!

Anne came from Logten, Denmark. In Logten, she lives with her parents, Agnete and Ib, and her two brothers - Peter and Poul. While in America, Anne stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Robinson, Kris, Kelly and Kurt.

Anne's year was hectic at times, but a lot of fun too. She enjoyed trying new American foods and found she especially liked beef and pizza. In her spare time, Anne likes to knit and crochet.

Anne's male counterpart in our exchange program, Bart Decaluwé, came from the Flemish part of Belgium in northwestern Europe.

Bart's American home was made with the Richard Levander family. Bart felt right at home with Levander's five children as he comes from a family of nine himself. He has two sisters, Mieke and Anneke, and four brothers, Jan, Piet, Nico and Jos.

In his spare time, Bart enjoys reading, swimming, or just "goofing around".

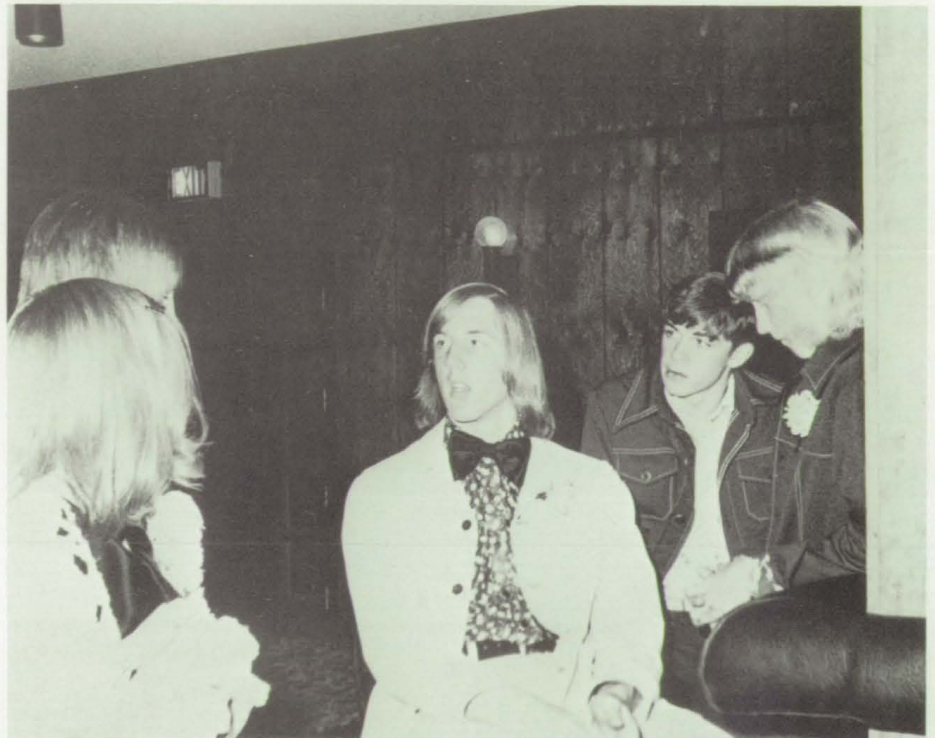

Both Anne and Bart celebrated their eighteenth birthdays while in the states. Anne's birthday was September 29, and Bart's birthday was December 31.

Plans for the future include further education for each; both Anne and Bart plan to major in education.

We from Lincoln wish both of them good fortune and success in the future.

A Night To Remember

As the sun sank into the sky and the stars came out, one by one five buses pulled up to the Hilton Inn in Coralville. This was the beginning of a night to remember.

The theme for the Junior-Senior Prom was "We May Never Pass This Way Again". Junior Class President Dale Broulik gave the welcome and Senior Class President Tom Donohoe answered the the response. Vic Randolph gave the Invocation, after which the Hilton employees served a buffet-style dinner.

When everyone was finished eating Rick Boots read the Junior Class Prophecy. Following the prophecy Tom Donohoe read the Senior Class Will.

Music was provided by a group from Davenport, called Cathedral. The opening song followed the prom theme.

At midnight when the moon was high in the sky and stars filled the sky five buses pulled away from the Hilton Inn. This was the end of a night to remember.

Graduation

Commencement speaker, Mr. Tom Ecker, addresses the audience on "Winning the Game".

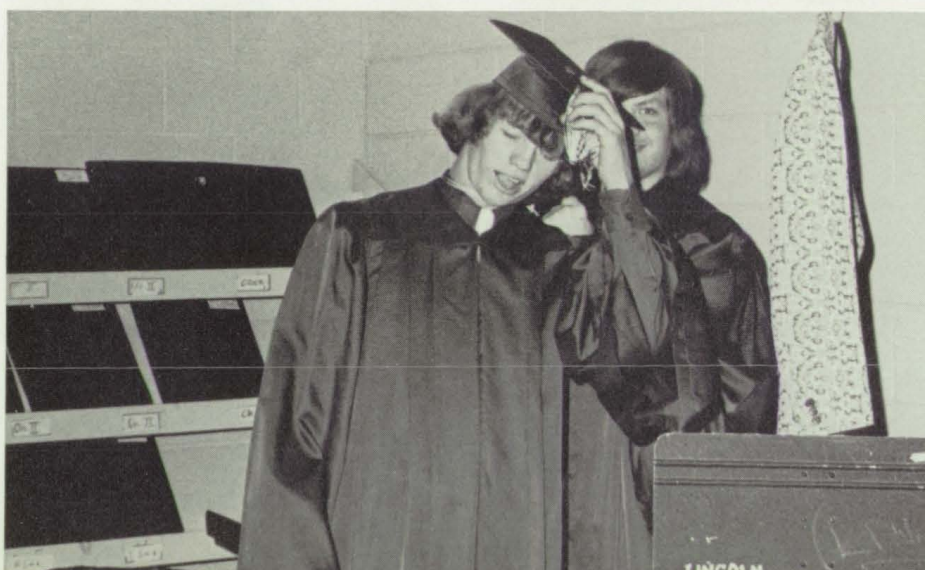

Superintendent Dale Proctor relates some of his feelings about his first year at Lincoln.

Mr. Buell Jackson says some final words to the graduating seniors.

Senior Class Trip

These fellows seem to have gotten picked up. This was one of the events at the Senior Class Carnival, held to raise money for the class trip.

May 15th 1975 at 8:30 A.M. 46 of Lincoln's Seniors, 7 members of the faculty, 2 vans, 1 truck, 15 buckets of chicken and tons of other goodies started off for Lake McBride for 1 big fun-filled Senior Class Trip.

The weather at first wasn't at all what the class had wished for and it seemed a gloomy day was ahead of them. But the sun soon appeared and the seniors and sponsors came alive. Everyone headed for the water either to fish, swim, paddle boat or go canoeing. Others preferred the land and hiked about or just layed around absorbing the hot sun.

Everyone had the pleasure of feeling the water, even the members of the faculty. Some of them put up a pretty good fight, but the mighty seniors managed to get them wet.

The tired and wet group loaded up the bus and returned home around 8:00 p.m. the same night. Everyone of them saying they had a great time and one heck of a sunburn.

Coach Jensen Comments On The Season

"The team lacked depth; there were no outstanding players. Fundamentals and mental preparation were the things we worked on the most.

"I would like to see many more young girls out for softball. There is no way Lincoln softball can be strong if we don't have girls developing in the sport at the freshmen and sophomore level to take the place of established players who graduate. Right now I see this as our biggest weakness."

"The squad played well throughout the season in that they were unexperienced as we had no seniors on the team. We were in every ballgame and shut out only once by the score of 3 - 0 at the hands of Calamus, the Conference Champs.

"The varsity finished with a 4 - 9 record and the junior varsity at 4 - 4. The varsity was lead by Bret Horr at 361 and Chuck Bails at 350, while Alex Taylor with an average of 380 was the leading J.V. hitter.

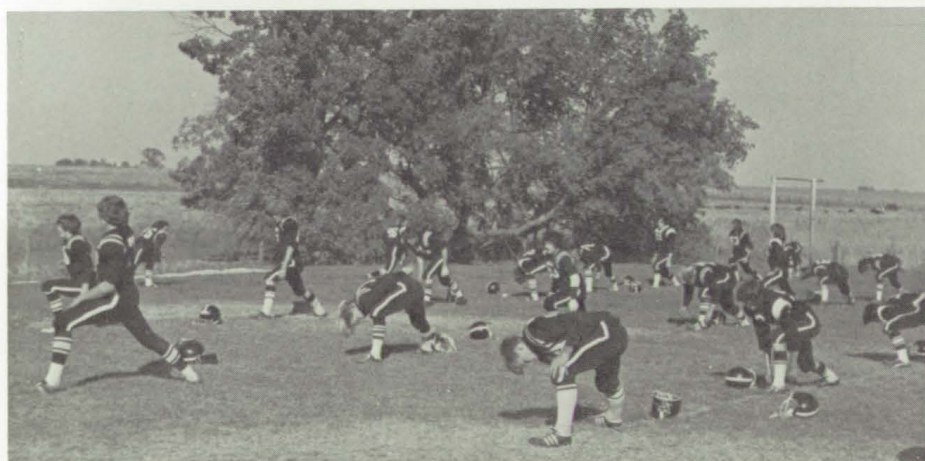

"The '74 campaign provided a great deal of experience for our squad and with everyone back we are looking forward to a great '75 season." Coach Jackson.

Coach Doug Jackson commented, "The gridiron season was completed with a record of 2 wins and 3 losses. The team played well on defense throughout the campaign but had difficulty generating on offense.

"Defense was our strongest suit as the juniors and sophomores had the defensive unit. These same people will be counted on next year to fill the positions lost by graduation of our seniors. With the loss of 12 seniors the experience gained, through our J.V. program, will be a valuable asset to those men returning for the '75 campaign."

Forty-five football players, 11 of whom were seniors and 8 returning letter winners, took to the football field on a hot August day. The players had a dream of winning a third straight conference championship. But, this dream never came true.

Coach Wendel commented, "The 1974 football team finished on a winning note and ended the season with a 5-4 record after a slow start. Our conference record was 4-3 and placed us in a tie for fourth. Next year we return seven or eight fine experienced players and hope the knowledge they gained will allow them to win the 1975 conference race."

The 1974 football records were kept by three fine statisticians. They were Joy Svoboda, Denise Steckly and Colette Cook. Thanks girls for a great job!

Homecoming

Change and new ideas were characteristic of Homecoming '74. Mingling originality with tradition, the annual festivity was extra-special.

All Homecoming events were held on Friday, Sept. 27th. In the afternoon, a parade of floats, royalty and clowns was led by the marching band through downtown Stanwood on its way to the football field. There the cheerleaders plus clowns held an enthusiastic pep rally featuring a skit by the king and queen candidates and of course Coach Wendel's introduction of the football team.

That evening the team faced a formidable opponent, the Preston Trojans. Down 6 points at the half, the Panthers weren't able to pull out of the slump in time, losing 6-12.

Spirits were still up for the Homecoming Dance immediately after the game in the gym. Enoch Smokey provided the music while tradition was broken twice--crowning Queen Lori Williams and for the first time a King, Mike Unruh, at the dance. So Homecoming ended with a flourish, and everyone is eager for next year's!

The 1974-75 Volleyball season started with 3 returning lettermen and lots of new talent. When asked about the season Coach Oldorf replied, "The season record points out a losing season, but it doesn't show team improvements, nor the close games and matches. Caliber of opponents played gave us stiff competition and good trained experience for upcoming seasons."

The most improved player for the season was Marilyn Stovall. The person who contributed the most in practice was Diana Lehman. Kathy Unruh was the leader in team spirit. Diana Lehman was high scorer for the season.

"1974-75 was a strange year for the Pantherettes. We set a new school record for points scored, we played some excellent defense, but consistency was something which constantly eluded us. Squad morale was good all season and while the win - loss record was disappointing, there was a great measure of satisfaction derived from team work and its accompanying camaraderie." Coach Jensen.

5 wins and 13 losses

"Our seasons' record of 5 wins and 13 losses was disappointing, but there were many games that could have gone into the win column. We played well against the teams that won the conference, but didn't have quite enough to win those games.

"There were times when we played very good basketball. The first Wheatland game, we shot 60% from the field and dominated from start to finish as we scored a 76-40 win. Both games with Calamus were good even though we were defeated 91-77 and 61-55 in overtime. The best quarter of ball came in the sectionals, where we came from behind in the second quarter to lead at the half of the Clarence/ Lowden game, outscoring them 20-7.

"Our shortcomings were in the area of rebounding and consistent play. The kids gave it a good go, but in most cases were out rebounded.

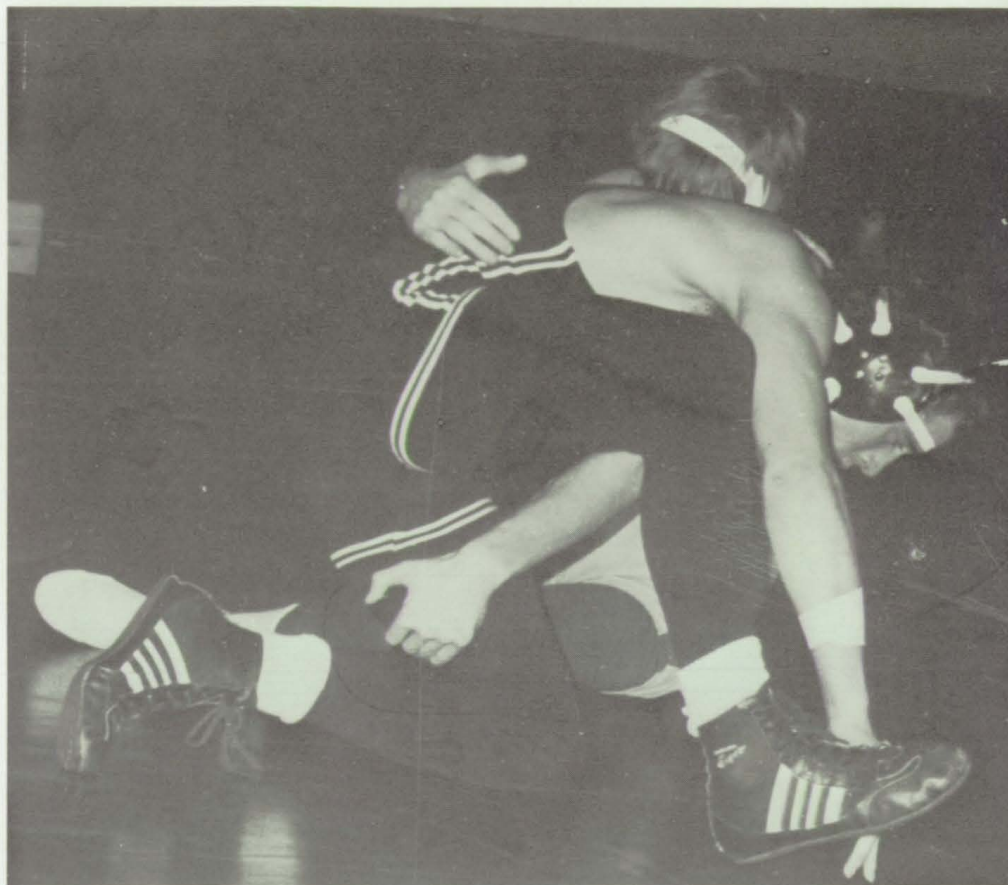

"Many teams lose their big players this year and next year. We should be in a real battle for first division. The panthers will be in battling for the Conference Trophy." Coach Jackson.

This year's heavyweight wrestler was Bret Horr. In this picture Bret controls his opponent by breaking him down.

The 1974-75 wrestling team has been the best wrestling team Lincoln has produced in nine years. The team ended the season with a 6-4 record. They also placed 3rd in the Benton, Tipton and Alburnett tournaments and 5th at Midland's tournament and the Wilton sectionals.

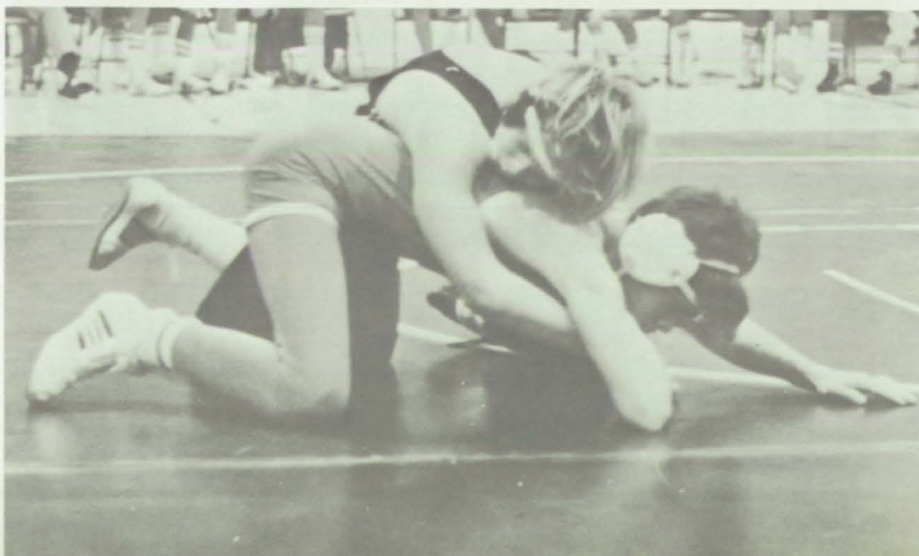

"Aggressive wrestling and the desire to win characterized this year's wrestling squad. Impressive performances by Joe Unruh, Keith Beck and Mike Unruh aided by the leadership of seniors Brian Montz, Bart Decaluwe, Dan Himes, and Don Griffith guided our team to a winning 6-4 season. Keith Beck, this year's outstanding wrestler, led the Panthers with 19 wins. In addition to tournament titles from Alburnett and Benton Community, Keith also qualified for the district tournament at Belle Plain. Because of the foundation this year's seniors have built, next year's team should even be better." Comments by Coach Elliott.

The 1974-75 Wrestling Co-captains were: (L-R) Junior Joe Unruh, and Seniors Brian Montz and Keith Beck. All these guys had commendable records and we're looking forward to have Joe back for the 75-76 year.

"These guys worked hard for everything they got. They worked as a TEAM the way games are won, not as individuals looking for self-recognition. They make up for size in pure attitude and desire. With a little work this summer on their own they'll be ready for a winning season for Lincoln next year.

"With a season record of 13-3 we see great hope for these boys next year and hope that we can get Danny Wagner and everybody else to grow another 6-8 inches." Comments by Coach Larsen.

COACH JENSON- "I was very gratified to have a large number of girls out. The team's enthusiasm was relatively high the whole time. Unfortunately, weather and other circumstances did not allow us to condition very much. It's a young squad with very few seniors, so it should be a strong team again next year."

Seven Years In A Row

Nobody seems to know how many fingers to hold up, but everyone's happy to win the Wapsie Conference for the seventh year in a row!

The '75 track season was a bit bizarre. Foul weather cancelled 3 of the first meets, and the team ran in their first competition (placing second) at the Spartanette Relays, April 14.

One highlight of the season was the squad's seventh consecutive victory at the Wapsie Conference meet. Lincoln also won the Mideast Conference and their own Swampsie Relays--both new events this year and hopefully new traditions, too.

Kym Speer set a new school record in the long jump at districts with a jump of 16'8 1/4" over Kathy Murfield's jump of 16'7". The jump qualified for the State meet along with the 880 yd. relay (Chris Zenishek, Kym Speer, Janice Studer, Kris Speer) and Janet Wagner in the 100 meter hurdles. Only 3 members were seniors, so next year's team should be just as successful.

Comments by Coach Linder:

"Even though we did not have a large number of meet wins we still had alot of individual success. Many of our relay times were comparable to other years. We have a good class of upcoming seniors and underclassmen, so we are looking forward to a more successful year next year.

"Three graduating seniors will be missed next year. They are Mike Flockhart, Jim Koch and Mike Unruh.

"Overall I feel our boys had an enjoyable year and enjoyed the competition throughout the season."

Bret Horr examines and refinishes his gun stock. This gun care course was a first for mini-courses.

Mini-Courses

With the help of a few hard working teachers and students, Lincoln was given a very educational and interesting week of mini-courses. New things were added to the curriculum of the past years such as the over-night camp-out, which was a lot of fun despite the cold temperatures; skiing trip at Galena, with its few bumps and bruises; and the delicious cooking courses, such as simple candy making and the bachelor courses.

It was a change from the long hours of the school routine, but many will confess they were extremely tired from the busy schedule they had each day. It was a week that we're sure no one will forget!

Publications' Class

To the ignorant observer, the publications' class looks like modified chaos where everyone makes their own noise and confusion. Unbeknownst to all, it is actually very organized (behind the scene, of course).

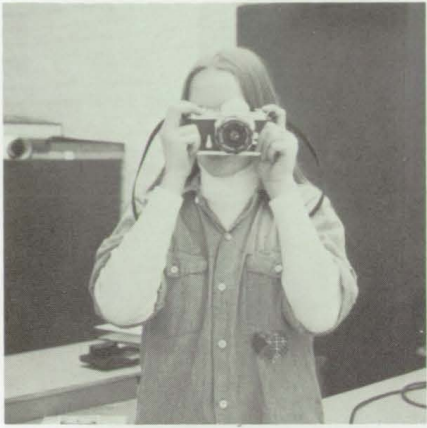

7th hour starts simultaneously with a few writers pecking on typewriters, others scribbling at a desk; clamors from the photographers for passes to the mysterious darkroom; those higher up in the pecking order grabbing assignments out of the file cabinet or distributing abundant advice. Mr. Dop gives his daily announcement, "All right, people--let's get busy with something! If you don't have anything to do, Kris will find you something."

Newspaper articles for the Lincoln Log are due on Wednesday, more than a week before that issue comes out on Thursday. Lisa Hatcher, the editor, proofreads all the material handed in and forwards it on to Mr. Dop for his approval. The photographers type (with a maximum of 2 fingers) the captions for their pictures, and disappear back to the darkroom.

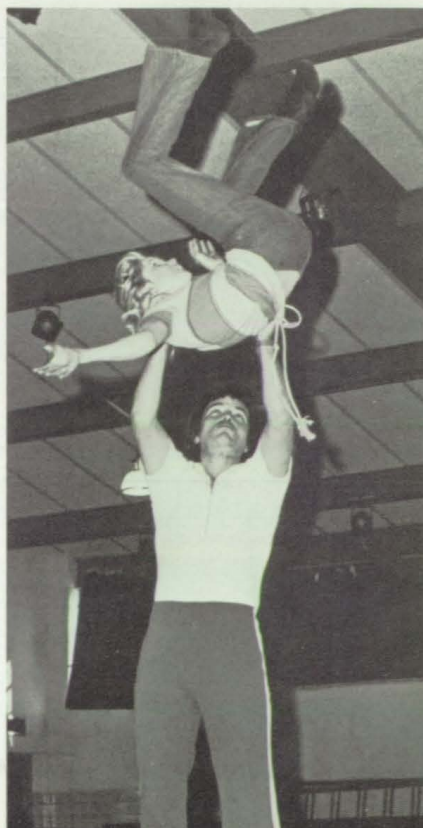

The annual takes more class time--devising lay-outs, writing copy, figuring up headline space, proofreading, labeling everything twice, proofreading and finally proofreading. There is more pressure to get the annual work done, since there are definite deadlines to be met with the company publishing the yearbook and it's Kristi Wenndt's (editor) responsibility to make sure it gets done.

No matter what publications LOOKS like, the class gets a lot done and is a great improvement over the separate newspaper and annual staff. These 12 girls and 3 boys deserve much praise and credit for their work.

Student Council

First Row: (L-R) J. Koch (vice-pres.), J. Svoboda (treas.), L. Hatcher (sec.) K. Wenndt (Pres.), Mr. Linder (advisor). Second Row: T. Platner, B. Montz, D. Griffith, M. Armstrong, V. Randolph, S. The 1974-1975 Student Council was an energetic group. It was the year of crowning a Homecoming King as well as a Queen. It was the year of the tardy slip and new relations between students and faculty. A new student phone was installed and the pop machine was kept full to the brim by council members. Student Council held fund drives for the African drought victims and Hurricane Fifi victims and the Muscular Dystrophy Campaign. During the year, officers attended a state convention at Ames and a district one at Tipton. Student Council organized and sponsored the annual Christmas party plus three other assemblies. The Music Loft of Cedar Rapids presented a musical show; Chaplain Jim Post spoke on life in Kansas State Prison. Eddie Cole and Aaron Johnson, expert gymnasts, performed death defying feats on the trampoline and demonstrated other physical fitness products made by the Nissen Corporation.

Marching Band

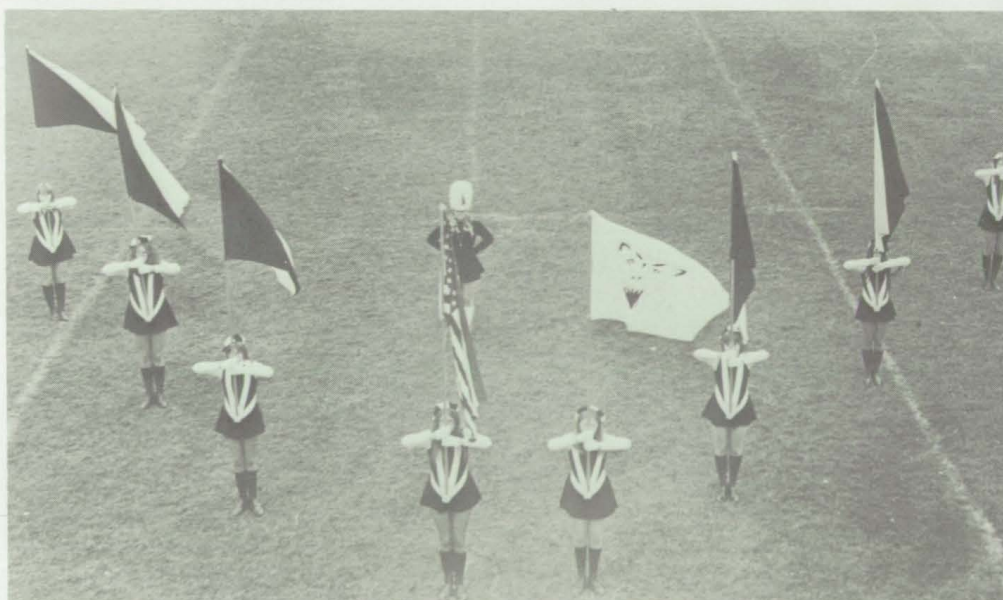

The 1974-75 Lincoln Marching Band was directed by Mr. Robert Meyer and their King and Queen were Dale Broulik and Denise Steckly.

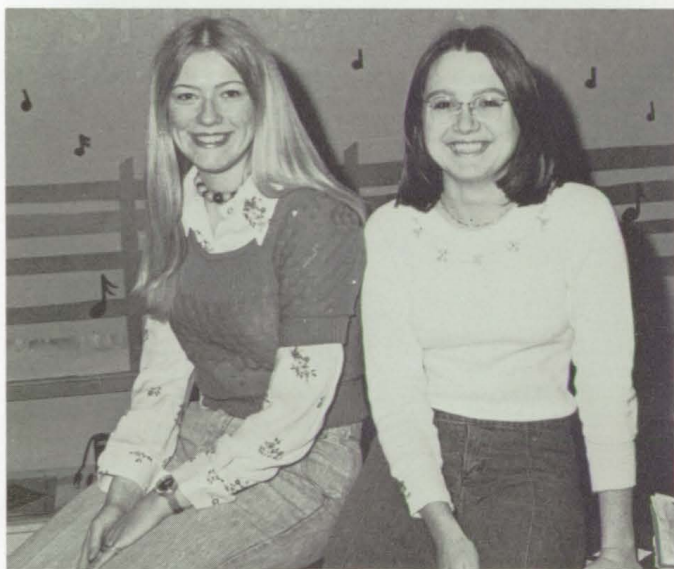

This was the second year for honor and color guard. This group brought back four alumni, Kathy Moravek, Lori Williams, Karen Whitman, and LeAnne Bohr. The new recruits were Kenlyn Kruse, Dawn Worby, Barb Mulherin, and Janet Bohr. The majorette was Linda Odeen.

The band participated in a few parades including the Clinton Mardi Gras on Halloween night. It also was our second year to go to Clinton and also our second year to get rained on at Clinton. The band also participated in the annual homecoming festivities.

Among the favorites of the band are the "Stripper" and the "Bud Song". And just plain old marching every morning first hour. And don't forget those mornings when you all got up at six to make it for early practice. Dream of all those fond memories and that drum roll and that kick off, then left, right, left, right, left, for those of the band that could not keep step. And those loud squad captains screaming, "Hey you get in line!"

1975 Music Contests

Coach's Comments: "The Lincoln girls showed lots of interest and enthusiasm for fall softball. We had a majority of the girls out for this sport and this made it difficult to play the girls as much as they would like during each game. All girls that stayed with the sport played in at least half of the games. Pitching was better this season than the past and hitting was our best skill of the game."

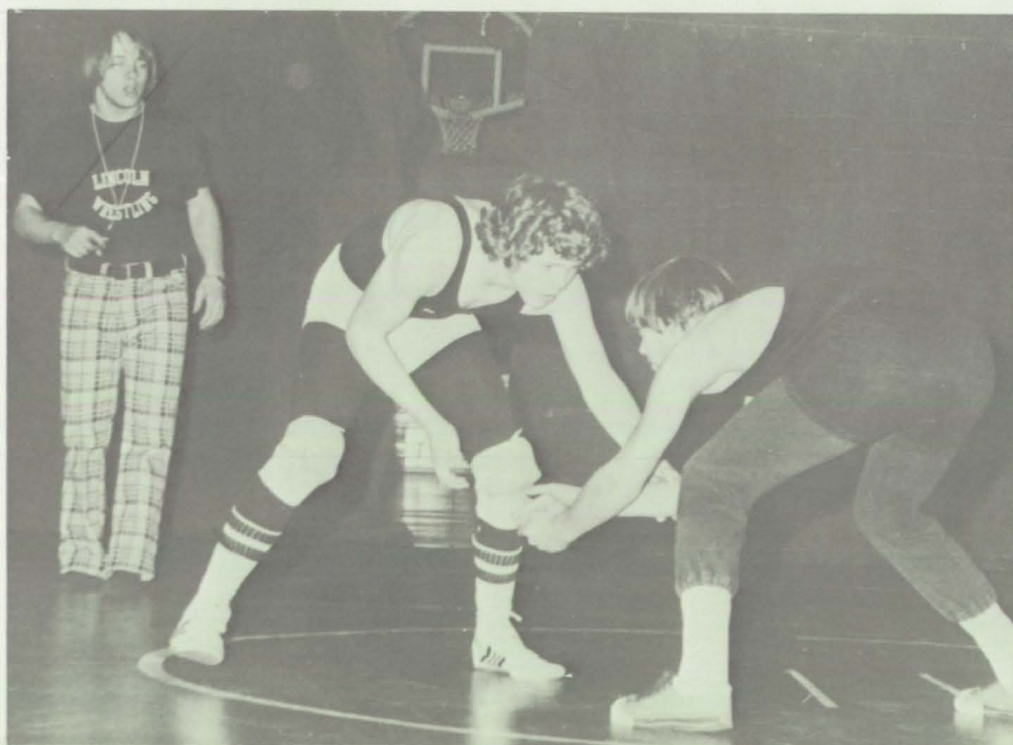

Jr. High Wrestling

Coach Elliott commented, "Though our jr. high team was inexperienced, they worked very hard this year in mastering the basic moves and concepts. With their enthusiasm the 8th graders will be a welcome addition to the high school squad. The 7th graders determination promises to prove next year's jr. high team highly successful."

1975 Was . . .

So many things happened during the 9 months of school that it can hardly be called a dull year. If you'll remember, this was when. . .

- . . .two all beef patties special sauce lettuce cheese pickles onionsonasameseedsbun took the nation by storm (in less than 3 seconds)
- . . .the wrestling team broke 500
- . . .the A's won the World Series for the 3rd year in a row
- . . .FFA of LHS and Clarence/Lowden merged
- . . .the junior high nearly burned down
- . . .the first annual Swampsie relays were won by us (whew!)
- . . .McVille celebrated their Rip Van Winkle Centennial
